YOU DEFINE THE TASK

WE DEVELOP THE PROCEDURAL METHOD

TAILORED RATHER THAN OFF THE RAILS

Work wear is more than just the provision of textiles. It is also a matter of responding to complex processes and specific requirements. This is why you won't find standardised offers at LHD. Rather we develop an individual solution for each customer. A team of experienced consultants works closely with the customer and, depending on the defined task, analyses the entire textile cycle searching for optimisation options. LHD's comprehensive knowledge in such important sectors as trade, industry, transport, healthcare and the chemical industry accelerates the process and ensures that significant benchmarks apply. In addition, LHD can call on many years of experience in the public sector and the military area.

The result: An intelligent clothing concept which permits optimum store inventory with maximum security of supply and minimum costs.

PROFESSIONALS AT WORK

From product development to the examination of material quality and on to logistics – LHD can call on over 150 specialised staff who support the customer in all important aspects. Furthermore, the cooperation with independent textile research institutes, universities and the TÜV guarantees a constantly high quality and, at the same time, secures the further development of the organisation.

Twenty of our own service bases in Germany, a dense network of contract laundries, logistic partners worldwide, our own call centre, a 72-hour pick up and return service – when it comes to capacity and flexibility, the LHD organisation can cater to the highest requirements.

GOOD TO KNOW

Whether uniforms, work wear or protective clothing, LHD is among the leading companies in the respective branches. And you can benefit in a wide variety of ways: from the extensive expertise in the branch, from a global supply chain management, from a modern IT system and competitive procurement prices.

In addition to its activities in the German market, the high-growth LHD company group also maintains a presence on the international markets, in some cases with its own companies.

Incidentally, LHD is backed up by such strong partners as LHBw, the uniform supply division of the German defence forces, Lion Apparel Inc., world market leader in the area of protective wear for firefighters, as well as Hellmann Worldwide Logistics GmbH & Co. KG from Osnabrück, one of the largest global logistic enterprises with over 8,500 staff.

PROFESSIONAL

“Because suitable work wear has a major influence on the wellbeing and motivation of your staff, we develop individual clothing solutions for the respective assignment.”

YOU DEFINE THE REQUIREMENTS

WE DEVELOP THE SOLUTION

MORE THAN JUST FUNCTION

As a matter of principle, work wear must meet even higher standards than normal clothing. On the one hand, it is a question of achieving a look which must equally suit the company and the individual wearer. On the other hand, work wear must frequently meet functional requirements which involve both the health and safety stipulations and such aspects as clothing comfort, durability or ease of care and cleaning.

LHD is ideally equipped to meet these wide-ranging demands. We offer holistic solutions in the development of textile materials and garments, which include both creative concepts in the area of corporate fashion and innovations in physical product properties. Independent of the specific assignment, we work closely with well-known national and international partners.

EQUIPMENT

“By the time we sell you an item of clothing, we have analysed your processes, created a complete infrastructure, carried out extensive material tests and spoken to your works council.”
